All conference participants are expected to comply with SPE's Anti-Harassment Policy, which is included on the SPE website. Your registration at the Conference evidences your agreement with this Policy.

Special Accommodations: SPE will make every effort to provide reasonable accommodations for the needs of our attendees, especially with regard to disabilities and/or medical conditions. Please contact membership@spenational.org ASAP to address any special needs you may have. Any information provided will be kept confidential. Requests must be submitted at least 30 days prior to the event(s) for which accommodations are sought in order for SPE to try to acquire necessary services.

Cancellation Policy: Conference tickets are non-transferrable and cancellation requests must be received in writing to membership@spenational.org by February 21, 2020. Cancellations are subject to a $25 processing fee. All tickets purchased after this date are non-refundable. The cancellation policy applies to all circumstances (including severe weather, natural disaster, flight cancellations, etc.).

Limited volunteer positions available to SPE student members in exchange for 8 hours of service during the conference. Volunteers receive a full rebate on registration. Volunteers must register for the conference online.
