

6th International Combined Caucus Juried Exhibition Call for Entry
LGBTQ, Multi-Cultural, and Women's Caucuses of SPE
The University of The Arts, Philadelphia, March 2018

We are pleased to announce the 6th International Combined Caucus Juried Exhibition Call for Entry for LGBTQ, Multi-Cultural, and Women's Caucuses of SPE.

The 6th International SPE Combined Caucus Juried Exhibition is organized in conjunction with the 2018 SPE 55th Annual Conference, Uncertain Times: Borders, Refuge, Community, Nationhood. This year's show will involve an unframed print exhibition to be held at the University of the Arts, Philadelphia, along with a print catalogue. To our delight we have secured Anthony Goicolea as this year's juror. He will select artworks reflecting the diversity of the three caucuses. There is no theme for this exhibition. For further information on the caucus missions, please visit: www.spenational.org/about/caucuses

* To help members with print and framing costs, The University of the Arts has generously offered to print all images. All accepted art works would require submission of high-resolution JPEGs.

Location:

The University of the Arts is located in downtown Philadelphia, at the center of the vibrant Avenue of the Arts. Established in 1876, the merging of two century-old institutions formed the University: Philadelphia College of Art and Philadelphia College of the Performing Arts. After being granted university status in 1987, the University of the Arts became the largest institution of its kind in the nation, offering programs in design, fine arts, media arts, crafts, music, dance, theater and writing.

Juror:

Anthony Goicolea: (b.1971) is an NY based multi-disciplinary artist who established himself in the late 1990s with a series of provocative self-portraits. His work ranges from photography, sculpture, and video, to multi-layered drawings on Mylar and large-scale installations. Goicolea holds an M.F.A. in sculpture and photography from Pratt Institute of Art. His art is held in many public collections, including those of the Whitney Museum of American Art, the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, and the Museum of Modern Art, as well as the Hirshorn Museum in D.C., the North Carolina Museum of Art, Raleigh; 21C Museum in Louisville KY, and the Brooklyn Museum of Art in NY. He was recently selected to create the first LGBT Memorial in the United States to be unveiled in the Hudson River Park at West 12th Street in NYC in the summer of 2018.

Eligibility

This juried exhibition is open to LGBTQ, Multicultural, and Women's Caucus members holding current membership in SPE. Anyone having a genuine interest in the mission of any or all caucuses is encouraged to join. All works must be created by current caucus members in the last five years and must be original. Works accepted for, or exhibited in, an SPE sponsored show within the last five years are not eligible for submission.

Entry Fee

$25 for up to 5 images. Payment will be made to Society for Photographic Education on the SPE website (please see instructions below). The entry fee is non-refundable.
