Entitled “50 Faces: the contemporary Portrait”, we are accepting fifty artists who have created artworks that interpret the art of contemporary portraiture.

In this call we are inviting artists to demonstrate their artistic approach in portraiture. Portraits are an intimate view of the subject matter that describe the character, sentiment and the concept of identity of an individual or place. These visual clues about the subject are presented in various ways such as employing a particular technique or the application of varying media.

Before sending in your submission, please read our guidelines and help-sheets Submission guidelines.
