

Rest + Relaxation

January 17th 2017 – February 5th 2017 Opening Reception: Tuesday, January 17th at 7:00pm

Treat Gallery at OSNY Midtown 417 W. 57th Street, New York, NY 10009

rest

verb. cease work or movement in order to relax, refresh oneself, or recover strength.

re·lax·a·tion

noun. the state of being free from tension and anxiety.

Treat Gallery is ready to help you unwind after a busy Holiday season with an upcoming collaboration with musician Blake Flattley in Midtown Manhattan.

We're ringing in 2017 with Rest and Relaxation. Keep your conceptually heavy work at home for this one – we want art that mirrors leisure. In a world where it's ever more difficult to escape work, it's good to be reminded to #treatyoself. Artists who interpret the theme Rest and Relaxation in their work are welcome to apply.

HOW TO APPLY:

Submit your biography, CV/Resume, 3-5 Work Samples, and pay the $25 application fee (via paypal to info@treatgallery.org) Shipping of work to and from the exhibition is the financial responsibility of the artist.

Deadline is midnight on Saturday, December 31st.

Artists will be notified no later than Wednesday, January 4th.

"Sweet Spot", July 2016

With every pop-up exhibition, Treat Gallery donates 25% or more to a various cause or non-profit. For Rest & Relaxation, 25% of proceeds will be donated to Blake's project, Communion Arts. Blake Flattley is a native Californian who grew up on the Beach Boys, Bob Dylan and the Beatles. A love for harmony and the challenge of sonically sharing the human struggle have greatly influenced his musical releases.

In 2015, Blake was a John Lennon Songwriting contest finalist for his song "There Will Be Rest" in the Gospel/Inspirational category. He is the Artist Relations Director for Winter is on My Head, an organization of artistically minded people striving to make the world a better place through music compilations created to help organizations raise money for their communities.

Questions, Comments? Dessert Recommendations? Contact us at info@treatgallery.org