Visions in Photography: Stories of Now

Deadline: August 22nd @ 11:59 pm Central Time (Online entries accepted only)

Visions in Photography: Stories of Now is a national juried photography exhibition organized by The University of North Dakota's Department of Art & Design and the Myers Foundations. All proceeds will benefit the UND Photography Club. All forms of photography are eligible, including digital, analog, alternative processes, and any mixed media where the main element is photography.

What stories do you want to share? American and the world has gone through a tremendous period of change that appears to be ever evolving. Show us your stories, visions, or nightmares on your mind about the current state of affairs. From the mundane bliss of everyday life to dreamscape realities, or to the circus show of contemporary politics, share your stories of now.

MEDIA:

Open to any photographic medium, including but not limited to historical processes, traditional silver printing, chromogenic printing, and digital process. All photographs must be framed no larger than 28" x 30".
